

ETHICS IN EVERYDAY PRACTICE

Adult services workers are faced with ethical dilemmas involving confidentiality, privacy, self-determination, boundaries, telecommunications, and dual roles, to name just a few. Effective ethical decision making requires self-reflection, knowledge of social work standards, use of resources, and supervisory support. This one-day workshop reviews ways to identify and make ethical decisions and gives participants practice in resolving everyday dilemmas.

25 participants; registration fee, $20

JANUARY 20, CLEMMONS, OR MAY 26, SYLVA

Complete the registration form and send it with your fee or your organization's authorization of payment to Libby Phillips before January 13 for Whiteville or May 19 for Sylva

Fax: (919) 962-3653

CARES, School of Social Work, CB# 3550
The University of North Carolina
Chapel Hill, NC 27599-3550

To register on line, go to NCSWlearn.org, or visit the CARES training calendar at ssw.unc.edu/cares/trnall.htm