By June 13: For those of you living more than 60 miles from Chapel Hill, the School will provide double-occupancy lodging for you on Thursday evening, August 14th, in Chapel Hill. Please contact Tiffany Carver (tscarver@email.unc.edu) by June 13, 2014 if you would like lodging.

By June 27: Completion deadline for Writing Assessment; Submit official transcripts

July 3 – 16: Register for fall classes; Begin “A Brief History of Oppression and Resistance” online course

You will not be able to register for your fall 2014 courses until your Writing Assessment has been completed and your official transcripts have been received.

Please begin browsing and exploring the online “Brief History of Oppression and Resistance” course prior to JumpStart on August 15th. Due to the length of time it takes to complete the course and the small group dialogues on oppression, diversity and social justice that will take place on the afternoon of August 15th, it will benefit you to complete at least a few of the modules by that time. The due date for completion of ALL of the modules is October 31st, however, we strongly recommend that you complete them before the start of the semester or by mid-September at the latest, so that you don’t experience time conflicts with your other course assignments.

By July 25: All documents required to request Fall Foundation Course Exemption from SoWo 500 and SoWo 530 should be submitted to Registrar Beth Sauer.
