Proposal for Directed Independent Study

Directed Individual Study is designed to offer advanced students the opportunity to pursue, for credit, a specialized topic of interest. Students need to come to an agreement on the following with a faculty member who will direct their course of study prior to registration.

a. Direction –

b. Learning Objectives –

c. Content –
d. Evaluation Plan (including assignments and percentage of total grade for each assignment) –

e. Number of Credits - __________

f. Course Number - ________________

g. Semester - ________________

Signed: ___________________________  Signed: ____________________
Student                        Instructor

Printed: ___________________________  Printed: ____________________
Student                        Instructor

Approved: ___________________________  Date: ____________________