FINANCIAL AID NOTES
for Full-time & Distance Education MSW Students 2014

Don’t forget to complete the FAFSA!
By completing the 2014-2015 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/ you can be considered for loans by the University’s Office of Scholarships and Student Aid (OSSA). Please visit http://studentaid.unc.edu/ or contact OSSA at 919-962-8396 for more information.

Student Jobs
In mid August we will email a limited number of available Research Assistant and Program Assistant positions to all students. These positions are usually for 6-10 hours/week; the rate of pay varies, but is usually around $14/hour.

Students with a Merit Assistantships, Weiss Urban Livability Fellowship, 50% Tuition Remission or Dean’s Research Award must choose a Research Assistant position by mid-August. Information will be emailed to students with a work requirement by August 1st. Please contact the Assistant Dean of Recruitment, Admissions & Financial Aid, Sharon Thomas, at sharon_thomas@unc.edu for more information.

Grant Source Library
To access a listing of possible funding, go to the UNC Grant Source Library’s website at http://grantsinfo.unc.edu/.

North Carolina Child Welfare Education Collaborative
If you have a strong interest and commitment to working in public child welfare services in North Carolina, you may want to consider applying for the NC Child Welfare Education Collaborative. Application documents for NC-CWEC are due May 19th and are a part of the online “welcome” documents. For more information on the NC-CWEC, please visit http://ssw.unc.edu/cwec/ or contact Wanda Reives, Assistant Director of the NC Child Welfare Education Collaborative at wreives@email.unc.edu.

2015-2016 Funding
During the Spring 2015 semester, you will be able to apply for School of Social Work scholarships for the 2015-2016 academic year. All continuing MSW students will be notified of the scholarship application deadline February 2015.
