  o Please begin browsing and exploring the online “Brief History of Oppression and Resistance” course prior to JumpStart on August 15th. Due to the length of time it takes to complete the course and the small group dialogues on oppression, diversity and social justice that will take place on the afternoon of August 15th, it will benefit you to complete at least a few of the modules by that time. The due date for completion of ALL of the modules is October 31st, however, we strongly recommend that you complete them before the start of the semester or by mid-September at the latest, so that you don’t experience time conflicts with your other course assignments.
