

2009 MSW Orientation: Preparation for Leadership 1st Year Triangle Distance Education Students

(Dates and times are subject to change.)

Friday, August 7, 2009

8:30 am – 3:30 pm

Conference Room, 300

Orientation for all first-year Triangle Distance Education Students.

Saturday, August 15, 2009

9:00 am – 2:00 pm

SAGE (Students Achieving Graduate Education)

SAGE is a pre-orientation program hosted by the School of Social Work for entering students of color and international students. All students are welcome to attend and must pre-register with Linda Wilson, Student Services Manager, by July 31st at LWilson@unc.edu.

Friday, August 21, 2009

JumpSTART Preparation for Practice begins for distance education students – Refer to PFP schedule. First-year Triangle & Mountain Area Distance Education students will only participate on August 21st in JumpSTART. The remainder of the JumpSTART Preparation for Practice curriculum will be provided throughout the fall semester.

Friday, August 28, 2009

First day of classes for all distance education students.

Saturday, September 12, 2009

4:00-7:00 pm

Wilson Park, Carrboro

Annual School of Social Work Potluck for faculty, students, and staff

Friday, September 18, 2009

12:00 – 1:00 PM

Lobby area of Tate-Turner-Kuralt Bldg

Information Fair—Learn more about certificate, licensure, and dual degree programs