

Realize the possibilities

UNC School of Social Work
Triangle Distance Education Program

MSW Program Information Session

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Social Work extends a warm invitation to learn more about graduate social work education. Our Triangle Distance Education MSW Program is designed for students who live within commuting distance of Chapel Hill, who are employed as helping professionals, and who cannot accommodate two academic years of full-time study. The Triangle Program offers the equivalent curriculum as the full-time program, but gives students the opportunity to complete their foundation courses over two years. Students then attend full-time for the third/final year.

At our information session, prospective applicants will:

- Learn about the Triangle Distance Education MSW Program and meet the program director and other UNC faculty.
- Hear how the N.C. Child Welfare Education Collaborative can help fund your education.
- Get the inside scoop on how to become a competitive applicant.
- Discover how to apply for financial aid.

Monday, December 14, 2009
5:30 to 7:00 p.m.

At Wake County Human Services
Swinburne Building, 2nd floor, Room 2132/2149
220 Swinburne Street, Raleigh

Light refreshments will follow the program.

Sponsored jointly by the N.C. Child Welfare
Education Collaborative and the Triangle MSW Program

Please RSVP to:

Travis Albritton, MSW, M.Div.
Director, Triangle Distance Education MSW Program
(919) 962-6432 • travis\_albritton@unc.edu
<http://ssw.unc.edu>

UNC
SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

