

FYI

A brown-bag series featuring new findings

Ever wonder what that project down the hall from you is all about?

Check out FYI, a series of lunchtime lectures and discussions for the School of Social Work community. Bring your lunch and join us once a month to hear the latest findings and facts.

FYI...You might be surprised what you learn.

2004

September 28	Dee Gamble, George Gamble & Sharon Holmes	Cross Cultural Learning: Unique Opportunities in South Africa
October 26	Kathleen Rounds, Joanne Caye & Marty Weems	Disaster Preparedness
November 23	Paul Smokowski, Martica Bacallao & Mimi Chapman	Viviendo Entre Dos Mundos (Living between Two Worlds) Beginning Findings from the Bicultural Project

2005

January 25	Syd Wiford	SA Certificate Program and Distance Learning
February 22	Rick Barth	The National Survey of Child and Adolescent Well-Being (NSCAW): How are the Children Involved with Child Welfare Services Faring?
March 22	Kathryn Kramer & Irene Zipper	From Foster Care to Adoption: Identifying System-Level Challenges for Children with Developmental Disabilities

All presentations take place from 12:15-1:45pm, Room 300, Tate-Turner-Kuralt Building.
Dessert provided.