

Ever wonder what that project down the hall from you is all about?

Check out FYI, a series of lunchtime lectures and discussions for the School of Social Work community. Bring your lunch and join us once a month to hear the latest findings and facts.

FYI...You might be surprised what you learn.

2006 Spring Semester Topics

February 7	Oscar Barbarin	Whither the Role of Families in Getting Children Ready for School?
February 28	Mary Anne Salmon & CARES Staff	1 in 4: Caring for Older and Disabled Family Members
March 28	Laurie Selz Campbell & peer supporters from Orange & Wake Counties	Getting Out of the Hospital, Staying Out of the Hospital, and Getting the Hospital Out of Us: Mental Health Peer Support & the Peer Bridger Program
April 25	Susan Parish	To be Announced

All presentations take place from 12:15–1:30pm, Room 300, Tate-Turner-Kuralt Building. Dessert provided.