

CURRICULUM VITAE

PAIK, JONG-GYU
706 A Hibbard Dr.
Chapel Hill, NC 27514
Tel: 919-914-7729
E-mail: casecon@unc.edu

AREAS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

Policy and program Evaluation, Life course and poverty, Collective efficacy and social development, and NGO activities

EDUCATION

September 2001- Present

University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC

School of Social Work

Doctoral Program

September 1998- May 2001

Washington University, St. Louis

George Warren Brown School of Social Work

Master of Social Work

Concentration: Social & Economic Development

March 1992-February 1997

Kyungpook National University, Taegu, Korea

Department of Social Welfare

Master of Arts in Social Welfare

Thesis: A study of the characteristics of Korea's social welfare movements as a social welfare practice: with regard to intervention strategy of the progressive social work

March 1988-February 1992

Kyungpook National University, Taegu, Korea

Department of Social Welfare

Bachelor of Arts in Social Welfare

HONORS AND AWARDS

Ameran UE Community Service Intern Stipend (December 2000)

From Ameren Corporation, St. Louis, Missouri

Daniel Sanders Scholarship (1998-2000)

From George Warren Brown School of Social Work, Washington University

Award from the Ministry of Education, Korea (December 1988)
For volunteer activities in 1988 Seoul Paralympics

Merit Scholarship (Spring & Fall 1988)
From Kyungpook National University, Taegu, Korea

RESEARCH EXPERIENCES

February 2003-Present
Center for Community Capitalism, Kenan Institute, University of North Carolina, School of Social Work, Chapel Hill, NC

Research assistant

Data analysis on predatory lending characteristics of sub-prime mortgage market, responsibilities include literature review on sub-prime market and data analysis on loan performance database. Statistical package used in analysis – SAS.

September 2001-September 2002

University of North Carolina, School of Social Work, Chapel Hill, NC

Research assistant

Data analysis on caseload dynamics of welfare reform in North Carolina, responsibilities include literature review on welfare reform and data analysis on North Carolina longitudinal welfare dataset. Statistical package used in analysis – SAS.

January 2001- May 2001

Washington University, GWB School of Social Work, St. Louis, MO

Concentration research practicum

Under the supervision of Shirley Porterfield, Ph.D., Assistant professor, GWB School of Social Work, responsibilities include literature review on welfare reform and data collection/analysis on the 1996 SIPP (Survey of Income and Program Participation) panel data.

October 2000-December 2000

Washington University, GWB School of Social Work, St. Louis, MO

Research assistant

“Rural Single Mothers” directed by Shirley Porterfield, Ph.D., Assistant professor, GWB School of Social Work, Washington University. Responsibilities include data cleansing work on 1999 and 2000 questionnaires.

October 2000-December 2000

Washington University, GWB School of Social Work, St. Louis, MO

Research assistant

“HEY Pilot Project”, study on HIV positive adolescents, directed by Diane Elze, Ph.D., Assistant professor, GWB School of Social Work, Washington University. Responsibilities include developing Access data entry forms.

September 2000-Present

Coro Midwestern Center

Research practicum

Program evaluation on “Jeff-Vanderlou Community Leadership Program” under the supervision of Andrew Thorp. Responsibilities include impact assessment and management of evaluation literature archives.

December 1998-May 1999

Washington University, GWB School of Social Work, St. Louis, MO

Research assistant

“Substantiated and Unsubstantiated Cases: Patterns and Predictors of Recurrence” A project under NCCAN priority area 2.03 #90CA159109, directed by Brett Drake, Ph.D., Associate professor, GWB School of Social Work, Washington University. Responsibilities involve Geocoding (using the MapInfo software to match addresses of data to census tracts) as well as management and collection of literature archives.

June 1999–August 1999

Missouri Progressive Vote Coalition, St. Louis, MO

Foundation practicum (400 hours)

Under the supervision of John Hickey, responsibilities include working with multiple coalition member organizations on field activities and analyzing the contribution data from of 1996 Missouri House election, and developing a draft of 1999 Missouri House vote chart

March 1995-February 1997

Social Science Institute, Kyungpook National University, Taegu, Korea

Administrative assistant

“Honored Citizen Program of Kyungpook National University, Taegu, Korea”. Honored Citizen Program is a city-wide program that provides university’s undergraduate classes for elderly citizens free of charge. Responsibilities included administrative work, giving academic advice, and monitoring the program.

October 1995

Samsung Electronics Grant Proposal

Co-principal investigator

“Group home project for neglected and abandoned children” with Eun, Jae-Sik, executive director of Woori Welfare Citizens’ Coalition (Woori Bokji Simin Yunhap). A community based group home, The House of Rising Sun, was partially founded with the grant.

LEADERSHIP /VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

September 2000- December 2000

Leadership Training for Organizational Success, St. Louis, MO

Fifteen-week Washington University College course for potential organizational leaders, instructed by Andrew Thorp, field instructor of Coro Midwestern Center

August 1996- July 2001

Welfare Forum at Nownuri BBS, Seoul, Korea

System operator

Welfare Forum at Nownuri BBS (<telnet://nownuri.net> & <http://www.nownuri.net>) has 350 members of mostly social workers and social work students. Responsibilities include maintaining membership, distributing information on best social work practices and facilitating discussion of concerns and issues among members.

July 2000

Summer Camp of the Association of Social Welfare Information, Seoul, Korea

Five-day summer camp held in Hosuh University, Chonan, Korea, sponsored by the Association of Social Welfare Information and directed by Han, Duk-Yeon. The title of the summer camp was “NGO and Social Welfare Movement”. Participated in Social Welfare Movement forum. Conducted two-hour lecture for executive members of Social Welfare Movement forum at pre-program session, Kwanak Social Welfare, Seoul, Korea.

September 1998

Training Course at American Red Cross, St. Louis, MO

Completed “Basic Disaster Service Course” and “International Social Services Courses”

April 1995 – May 1997

Woori Welfare Citizens’ Coalition, Taegu, Korea

Activist & Social Worker

Woori Welfare Citizens’ Coalition is a community based peoples’ organization (PO) and dedicated to peoples’ welfare rights, welfare education for citizens, social worker and social work students, and advocating policy alternatives. Responsibilities included analyzing welfare policies, directing seminar sessions for social work graduate students and participating in various issue-based coalition campaigns.

July 1995–August 1995

Hansarang Village, Kyunggi-Do, Korea

Graduate practicum (200 hours)

Assisting mentally retarded children in their ADL (Activities of Daily Living)

March 1992-August 1994

Military Services

Platoon Leader (paid position)

21X 65R Combat Support Company, ROK (Republic of Korea) Army. Worked with 40 platoon members and serviced at DMZ (Demilitarized Zone) for 12 months.

January 1992 – February 1992

SOS Children’s Village, Taegu, Korea

Volunteer

Tutoring and mentoring children in the after school programs

January 1990 – February 1990

Hansarang Village, Kyunggi-Do, Korea

Undergraduate practicum (200 hours)

Assisting mentally retarded children in their ADL (Activities of Daily Living)

October 1988-December 1988

1988 Seoul Paralympics Organizational Committee, Seoul, Korea

Volunteer

Worked at “Department of Services and Facilities”, Olympic Athletes’ Village, Seoul, Korea. Responsibilities involved assessments of athletes’ specific service needs and management of high school volunteers

March 1988-May 1988

Association of probation and rehabilitation, Taegu, Korea. (Kaeng Saeng Boho Hoi)

Volunteer

Worked as a college volunteer member. Responsibilities involved in counseling with juvenile delinquent youth in custody and probation.

OTHER EXPERIENCE

September 2000

Vote Registration Drive, St. Louis, MO

Participated in vote registration drive focused on Bosnian, Korean and Vietnam immigrant workers in a plastic factory, St. Louis, MO.

September 1998-December 1998

Washington University, GWB School of Social Work Library, St. Louis, MO

Library assistant

September 1998-November 1998

Washington University, GWB School of Social Work, St. Louis, MO

Web management

“Social Work Job Info” on GWB website, directed by Carol Doeling, director of career services at GWB School of Social Work. Responsibilities include updating new job information on the website.

July 1997-December 1997

Language Institute of Syracuse University

Learning English and culture

May 1997

Panel discussant at YMCA monthly forum, Taegu, Korea

“Problems of Welfare Institutions: Regarding the incidence of Young-Rak Elderly Welfare Institution”

May 1995

Single Subject Design Workshop, Taegu, Korea

Five-session weekly workshop, held in Taegu Welfare Center, instructed by Kim, Tong-Won, Ph.D., professor at the Department of Social Welfare, SungKyunKwan University, Seoul, Korea.

October 1995

World Wide Web Workshop, Taegu, Korea

Three-day workshop held in Kyungpook National University, Taegu, Korea. Training sessions for homepage design with HTML (Hyper Text Markup Language).

August 1995

Field Trip to Welfare Agencies, Kyoto, Japan

Fifteen-day field trip in Kyoto and Kobe-Hanshin-Awaji area, Japan. Under the guidance of Cho, Chu-Ryong, Ph. D., visited Kyoto Social Welfare Association and nursing homes in Kobe-Hanshin-Awaji area.

September 1994-February 1995

The Insearch Language Institute, Sydney, Australia

Learning English and culture