

CURRICULUM VITAE

Jay C. Williams

Home: 8410 Inverness Way
Chapel Hill, NC 27516
(919) 929-0065
FAX: (919) 932-3808
E-mail: jaycwilliams@mindspring.com

Office: 900A Franklin Square
1829 East Franklin Street
Chapel Hill, NC 27514
(919) 942-8716
FAX: (919) 933-9233

Date of Birth: January 4, 1947

Family: Wife, Elinor T. Williams; daughter, Lindsey H. Williams

Education:

Ph.D., Smith College School for Social Work, Northampton, MA, 1991. Fellowship at Durham Community Guidance Clinic, Duke Medical Center.

M.S.W., Smith College School for Social Work, 1972, Internships at Montgomery County (PA) Mental Health Center and Family Service Association of Greater Boston.

B.A., (Psychology), Duke University, Durham, NC, 1969.

Work Experience:

Private Practice of individual and family therapy, clinical supervision and agency consultation, Chapel Hill, NC, 1978-present.

Clinical Social Worker, Division of Child Psychiatry, UNC Hospitals, Chapel Hill, NC, 1972-1982.

Pre-professional work experiences include positions as Caseworker in inner city mental health center, Child Care Worker in psychiatric hospital, Research Assistant in drug abuse research project, and Resident Advisor in freshman dormitories.

Academic Appointments:

Clinical Associate Professor, School of Social Work, UNC-CH, (Courses taught: Mental Health Methods with Adults; Mental Health Methods with Children; Brief Treatment; Adult Mental Disorders; The Life Cycle; and Social Work Services to Individuals, Groups and Families), 1983-present; Field Instructor, 1979-1985.

Adjunct Assistant Professor, Smith College School for Social Work, Northampton, MA, Thesis Advisor, 1984-1988 and 1995-present, Field Instructor in Doctoral Program, 2000-2001.

Clinical Assistant Professor, School of Medicine, UNC-CH, Psychotherapy Clinic Supervisor for psychiatry residents, 1984-present.

Instructor, Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy Study Center of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC, Steering Committee Member, 1995-2000, Seminar Instructor and Supervisor, 1993-present.

Publications:

Williams, (1999) Inpatient Settings, in Schaefer, C. (ed.), Short-Term Psychotherapy Groups for Children: Adapting Group Processes for Specific Problems. New York: Jason Aronson, 439-482.

Williams and Tucker (1994) The Talking Doctor. Chapel Hill, NC: Williams and Tucker (monograph).

Williams, (1991) An exploration of affect labeling in impulsive, aggressive boys, Smith College Studies in Social Work, 62, (1)(dissertation abstract).

Williams and Tucker, (1986) Firesetting: a family affair, in Schaeffer et al (eds.), Therapies for Children, Volume II, San Francisco: Jossey-Bass (abstract).

Edelsohn, G. and Williams, (1985) Consultation to a public high school: a developmental perspective, Journal of Child and Adolescent Psychotherapy, 2, (2)(article).

Williams, (1978) Group psychotherapy with children, Chapel Hill Workshops Reports, (workshop proceedings).

Williams, (1978) The meaning of separation to families and children, Chapel Hill Workshops Reports, (workshop proceedings).

Williams, Copeland, Lewis, Tucker and Feagin, (1978) A model for short-term group therapy on a children's inpatient unit, Clinical Social Work, 6, (1)(article), abstracted in Schaeffer, C. et al (eds.) (1982), Group Therapies for Children and Youth: Principles and Practices of Group Treatment, San Francisco: Jossey-Bass.

Williams, Marr, Lewis, Tucker, and Copeland, (1977) The evolution of a psychotherapy group on a children's inpatient unit, Smith College Studies in Social Work, XLVII, (1) (article).

Williams, Copeland and Sanders, (1974) Collaborative use of casework and role modeling in treating parent-child interaction, North Carolina Journal of Mental Health. (article). Winner of the James L. Cathell Memorial Award given annually by the North Carolina Journal of Mental Health and the North Carolina Foundation for Mental Health Research for the outstanding paper concerning psychiatric disorders of children and youth.

Williams, (1972) Factors influencing caseworkers' decision to use family interviews, Smith College Studies in Social Work (M.S.W. thesis abstract).

McHugh, G. and Williams, (1969) The Drug Knowledge Inventory, Saluda, NC: Family Life Publications, (standardized test and teaching manual).

Workshops and Presentations:

A list of over 75 presentations is available on request.

Certifications:

Board Certified Diplomate in Clinical Social Work, 1988-present

Licensed Clinical Social Worker (NC), 1987-present.

Licensed Marital and Family Therapist (NC), 1981-1998.

Academy of Certified Social Workers, 1974-present.

Professional Organizations:

North Carolina Society for Clinical Social Work, 1979-present, Past President, and Current Board Liaison to MSW programs in NC.

American Association of Psychiatric Services for Children, Southeastern U.S. Region, 1972-1985, Past President, Secretary-Treasurer, and Chair of the Program, Nominating, and Corresponding Committees.

Smith College School for Social Work Alumni Association, 1972-present, Founding Member of National Board and Current Area Coordinator.

North Carolina Psychoanalytic Society, Scientific Associate Member, 1997-present.

Committee on Psychoanalysis of the National Federation of Societies for Clinical Social Work, 1995-present.

National Association of Social Workers, 1972-present.

American Association for Marital and Family Therapy, Clinical Member, 1979-1998.