

AHEC-SSW Training Partnership Faculty Information Sheet

Name: Amy Levine

Position/Title: Clinical Assistant Professor

Work Address: UNC-CH, School of Social Work
325 Pittsboro Street, CB# 3550
Chapel Hill, NC 27599

Work Phone: 919-962-6419

E-mail Address: amylevine@unc.edu

Fax Number: 919-962-3384

Education/Degrees:

- Bachelor of Arts in Social Thought and Analysis
Washington University in St. Louis, May 1999

- Master of Social Work
UNC-Chapel Hill, May 2002

Professional Certifications:

- Licensed Clinical Social Worker
- Certification in Clinical Supervision

Academic Experience:

- Clinical Assistant Professor, UNC-Chapel Hill 2019-Present
- Clinical Instructor, UNC-Chapel Hill 2015-2019

Brief Summary of Work Experience:

- Orange County Child Protective Services—social worker in in-home services and foster-care unit;
- UNC Department of Psychiatry—study recruitment and clinical follow up with children and adolescents;
- Advanced Health Resources, Puzzle Piece Programs, Freedom House Recovery Center, Community Mental Health—in-home and office-based mental health and substance use treatment with children, adolescents, and adults;
- Lepage Associates—assessment and treatment of adult mental health and substance use issues and clinical supervision.
- Nathanson Adoption Services—assessment and counseling to children, adolescents, and families.

- Clinical Supervision—clinical supervision services to LCSW- As.
- Cary Counseling Center—assessment, diagnosis, and mental health treatment with children, adolescents, families, and adults.

Specialization/Research Areas:

- Child welfare
- Mental health treatment with children, adolescents, and families
- Trauma-informed care
- Adoption
- Provider Resilience
- Field Education practices

Available for presentations on the following:

- Child welfare
- Mental health
- Trauma-informed care
- Provider Resilience