

AHEC-SSW Training Partnership Consultant Information Sheet

Name: LB Klein

Position/Title:

Doctoral Research Assistant and Adjunct Faculty, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Social Work

Principal Consultant/Founder at Catalytical Consulting LLC

Fellow, Prevention Innovations Research Center, University of New Hampshire

Work Address: University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Social Work
325 Pittsboro Street, CB# 3550 Chapel Hill, NC 27599-3550

Work Phone: 314-578-8584

E-mail Address: lbklein@unc.edu

Education/Degrees:

- PhD (in progress) University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Social Work
- MPA (Gender-Based Violence Policy and Program Development), University of Colorado Denver School of Public Affairs
- MSW (Mental Health), Washington University in St. Louis Brown School of Social Work
- BA in History; Minors: Spanish, Women's & Gender Studies, Washington University in St. Louis

Professional Certifications:

- Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Health Certificate, Drexel University
- Certified Rape Crisis Counselor

Academic Experience:

- Doctoral Research Assistant to Dr. Rebecca Macy, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Social Work. Projects Include: Orange County Domestic Violence Needs Assessment, Teach2Reach Project to Educate Youth About Sex Trafficking, Journal of Family Violence
- Instructor, Foundations of Evidence-Based Practice and Program Evaluation, UNC-Chapel Hill School of Social Work
- Co-Instructor, Administration and Management, UNC-Chapel Hill School of Social Work
- Instructor, Gender-based violence courses, Emory University
- Multiple guest lectures in public health, nursing, social work, and medicine – Emory University & Washington University in St. Louis

- Graduate Research Assistant, Health Communication Research Laboratory, Brown School of Social Work, Washington University in St. Louis
- Graduate Research Assistant to Dr. Clifton Emery, Brown School of Social Work, Washington University in St. Louis

Brief Summary of Work Experience:

LB Klein, MSW, MPA is a doctoral research assistant and adjunct faculty member at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Her work focuses on gender-based violence prevention, intervention, and policy; advancing equity in higher education; bridging the gap between research and practice; community capacity building; community-based participatory research; and implementation science. She has served as a consultant, trainer, and evaluator across the U.S. and Canada with her consulting partnership Catalytical Consulting LLC and through Prevention Innovations Research Center at the University of New Hampshire and Soteria Solutions. LB is a founding leadership council member and research co-chair of the Campus Advocacy and Prevention Professionals Association (CAPPA). She previously directed Emory University's interpersonal violence prevention and advocacy office (now the Office of Respect). She holds a bachelor's in history and master's in social work from Washington University in St. Louis, a master's in public administration from University of Colorado Denver's Program on Gender-Based Violence, and a graduate certificate in LGBT health from Drexel University. LB has worked in various capacities to prevent and respond to gender-based violence for over 15 years. You can learn more about her on LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/laurenlbklein>

Specialization/Research Areas:

- Gender-based violence prevention and intervention
- Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender health
- Compassion satisfaction and fatigue/burnout prevention
- Administration and management
- Implementation science

Available for presentations on the following:

- Gender-based violence prevention and intervention
- Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender issues (particularly non-binary identities: bisexuality, gender nonconformity)
- Compassion satisfaction and fatigue/burnout prevention
- Working with college and university students