

AHEC-SSW Training Partnership Consultant Information Sheet

Name: Bailey Woodruff
Position/Title: MSW, LCSWA
Work Address: 1020 Southhill Dr, Suite 300, Cary, NC 27513
Work Phone: 302-299-3990
E-mail Address: baileylwoodruff@gmail.com

Education/Degrees:

BS in Human Development & Family Studies, Concentration in Child, Youth & Families
MSW, Concentration in Direct Practice – May 2021

Professional Certifications:

Telehealth for Mental Health Professionals, Certified April 2020
Circle of Security Parenting International, Certified May 2021

Academic Experience:

UNC PrimeCare Fellowship
Leadership Excellence in Neurodevelopmental Disorders and Related Disabilities
(LEND) Traineeship

Brief Summary of Work Experience (what are you doing now):

- Part time clinical therapist with Neurodiversity Empowerment Services working with diverse disabled communities through individual and group therapy
- Consultant with UNC-CH School of Social Work's Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee working on accessibility in graduate education
- Developing expertise and experience creating and facilitating clinical education related to practice with disabled communities

Specialization/Research Areas:

- Sexual Health Education, Reproductive Justice, and Disability
- Eugenics and Disability
- Social Isolation and the IDD Community
- Family Relationships and Disability
- Accessibility, Accommodation, and Modification of Therapeutic Practices with IDD Communities

Available for presentations on the following topics:

- Social Isolation in the IDD community
- Reliability and Validity Concerns of Mental Health Assessment Tools in the IDD Community
- “Disability-Informed Practice”—foundational framework, theory, and practice modifications for therapeutic practice with disabled communities