

AHEC-SSW Training Partnership
Consultant Information Sheet

Name: Julie M. Austen, PhD, LP

Position/Title:

- Owner and Psychologist at Austen Psychological Services (a psychological evaluation clinic)

Work Address:

Austen Psychological Services
907 West St.
Pittsburgh, PA 15232

Work Phone:

412-206-9399

E-mail Address:

admin@austenpsychologicalservices.com

Education/Degrees:

Certificate – Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in Research, UNC-CH, 2021
PhD – Health Psychology from East Carolina 2014
MA/CAS - School Psychology from East Carolina 2012
BA – Psychology, Chatham University, 2007

Professional Certifications:

Licensed Psychologist in NC, Health Service Provider-Psychologist
Licensed Psychologist in PA

Academic Experience:

Five years of teaching upper-level undergraduate courses in Child Development, Psychology Foundations, Psychology of Sexual Behavior, and LGBTQ Health Disparities.

Brief Summary of Work Experience (what are you doing now):

- Providing neurodivergent-friendly psychological evaluations for children and adults

Specialization/Research Areas:

- LGBTQIA+ Health, with a special emphasis on:
 - Gender affirming care and gender development
 - Dis/Ability, neurodivergence, and autism
 - Sexual health
- Implementation science and systems-level interventions at federal, state, and local levels.

- Integrated care and collaborative medical approaches
- Youth leadership programs and youth-led initiatives
- IDEA Part C, Part B, and Child Find

Available for presentations on the following topics:

Any of the topics listed above.