Brief Summary of Work Experience (what are you doing now):

I currently am the Founder and CEO of my own consulting business, called Accessible Sexual Health. Through this business, I provide training, resources, and consultation to help advance access to sexual and reproductive health education for individuals with disabilities. We help individuals with disabilities, disability service providers, and caregivers feel more knowledgeable, confident, and competent in topics surrounding sexuality and sexual health.

Specialization/Research Areas:

Comprehensive sexual health education for individuals with disabilities
Abuse, neglect, and exploitation prevention
Increasing accessibility to reproductive healthcare for individuals with disabilities
Addressing implicit bias and ableism

Available for presentations on the following topics:

- Accessible Reproductive Healthcare: Removing Barriers for People with Disabilities
- Empowering Disability Services Providers to Prevent Abuse
