

Donna B. Newberne, LCMHCS

mrsnewby1@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

Dynamic professional with proven performance in leadership, management and training, desiring to facilitate training the next generation of mental health providers in evidence-based practices to reduce trauma related symptoms in under-represented communities.

EXPERIENCE

March 2005– present

MH Clinic Director, SPARCS Master Trainer

Center for Child and Family Health • Durham, NC

Skills:

- Provide individual and group clinical supervision
- Assist in the facilitation of TFCBT group supervision and consultation
- Design and deliver educational content and activities for trainees in SPARCS Learning Collaborative and Communities
- Oversee all aspects of administrative and clinical supervision for an outpatient, community based mental health clinic
- Participate in a multi-disciplinary team meeting twice monthly with key stakeholders and community partner working with traumatized children and families
- Trained in SPARCS, ARC, TFCBT, AFCBT, PCIT, TGCTA
- Delivers clinical consultation for trainees in SPARCS collaborative
- Intermediate communication skills in Spanish
- Delivers evidence-based trauma informed treatment

EDUCATION

- University of Massachusetts, Lowell, MA
Bachelor of Science, Clinical Laboratory Science, May 1993
- North Carolina Central University, Durham, NC
Master of Arts, Counselor Education, December 2004
Summa Cum Laude

PRESENTATIONS

- Promoting Culturally Sensitive and Responsive Practices in Clinical Supervision
- How to be a Culturally Sensitive and Responsive Human
- Becoming a Neuro-Affirming Clinical Supervisor
- Intentional Forgiveness
- Embracing Neurodiversity in the Workplace

MEMBERSHIP

LCCNC